Dear Industry Representative:

The Connecticut Chapter of the American College of Cardiology (CCACC) invites you to participate as an exhibitor at our 18th Annual Meeting & Scientific Session on April 21, 2010. Dr. Kim Eagle, Albion Walter Hewlett Professor, Internal Medicine at the University of Michigan, and Clinical Director, Cardiovascular Care at the University of Michigan Health System, is our keynote speaker. Dr. Eagle's Keynote Address is on Cardiac risk of non cardiac surgery...state of the art, and Health reform in cardiac care: what is needed?

CCACC is a non-for-profit organization dedicated to promoting high standards in the practice of cardiovascular medicine and surgery in the state of Connecticut. The CCACC was acknowledged by the American College of Cardiology for the fourth year in a row with its "Chapter Recognition Award" for meeting ACC goals for chapter membership, communications, quality initiatives, advocacy and management.

Last year our annual dinner meeting attendance totaled 62 cardiology medical professionals from 18 hospitals and practices throughout Connecticut. These included Cardiologists, Fellows in Training and Cardiac Care Associates.

We hope that you can participate. Please see the attached exhibitor registration form for additional information. For your convenience, our federal tax ID number is 06-1390571.

Sincerely,

Neal Lippman, MD, FACC
President
